Creating Gender Transformative Engage Health Promotion Interventions for Women stakeholders including practitioners, women, decision-makers, researchers and community leaders in various sectors. Analyze Settings Populations all forms of evidence for the population, setting and 1 What are some essential 1 Which populations of Report issue through a gender, sex features of the setting that women are important? and diversity lens. gender and health impact the design and Why? outcomes and disseminate implementation of an 2 What is the social status the findings. intervention for women? of the population? 2 How do gendered features of 3 What are the gender and the setting impact women's health issues experienced health outcomes? by these women? 3 How are women positioned within the setting? Issues Review 1 How has the field addressed gender, to date, existing health promotion in relation to the issue? practice by critically Evaluate 2 What are the intersecting examining gendered beliefs determinants experienced by and discriminatory practices. processes and outcomes women in relation to the issue? against the goals of 3 How does gender, sex and promoting gender and diversity inform the issue? health equity. Identify Implement ways to improve women's an intervention that improves health and change harmful gender norms, roles and women's health and encourages equitable roles for relations in the women, and access to and intervention. control over resources.